II. BACKGROUND

2. Pursuant to section 20.19(d)(2) of the Rules, carriers were required to offer at least two handset models for each air interface that meet the inductive coupling standards for hearing aid compatibility by September 18, 2006.³

3. On August 13, 2007, the Bureau issued a letter of inquiry (“LOI”) to Alaska DigiTel.⁴ The August 13, 2007 LOI directed Alaska DigiTel, among other things, to submit a sworn written response to a series of questions relating to its compliance with the inductive coupling hearing aid compatibility requirements. Alaska DigiTel responded to the August 13, 2007 LOI on August 27, 2007.⁵ On December 21, 2007, an application to transfer control of Alaska DigiTel to GCI, Inc. was filed.⁶

III. TERMS OF AGREEMENT

4. Adopting Order. The Parties agree that the provisions of this Consent Decree shall be subject to final approval by the Bureau by incorporation of such provisions by reference in the Adopting Order without change, addition, modification, or deletion.

5. Jurisdiction. Alaska DigiTel agrees that the Bureau has jurisdiction over it and the matters contained in this Consent Decree and has the authority to enter into and adopt this Consent Decree.

6. Effective Date; Violations. The Parties agree that this Consent Decree shall become effective on the date on which the Bureau releases the Adopting Order. Upon release, the Adopting Order and this Consent Decree shall have the same force and effect as any other Order of the Bureau. Any violation of the Adopting Order or of the terms of this Consent Decree shall constitute a separate violation of a Bureau Order, entitling the Bureau to exercise any rights and remedies attendant to the enforcement of a Commission Order.

7. Termination of Investigation. In express reliance on the covenants and representations in this Consent Decree and to avoid further expenditure of public resources, the Bureau agrees to terminate its investigation. In consideration for the termination of said investigation, Alaska DigiTel agrees to the terms, conditions, and procedures contained herein. The Bureau further agrees that in the absence of new material evidence, the Bureau will not use the facts developed in this investigation through the Effective Date of the Consent Decree, or the existence of this Consent Decree, to institute, on its own motion, any new proceeding, formal or informal, or take any action on its own motion against Alaska DigiTel concerning the matters that were the subject of the investigation. The Bureau also agrees that it will not use the facts developed in this investigation through the Effective Date of this Consent Decree, or the existence of this Consent Decree, to institute on its own motion any proceeding, formal or informal, or take any action on its own motion against Alaska DigiTel with respect to Alaska DigiTel’s basic qualifications, including its character qualifications, to be a Commission licensee or authorized common carrier.

The Commission's adjudication of any such complaint will be based solely on the record developed in that proceeding. Except as expressly provided in this Consent Decree, this Consent Decree shall not prevent the Commission from investigating new evidence of noncompliance by Alaska DigiTel with the Act, the Rules, or the Order.

9. Voluntary Contribution. Alaska DigiTel agrees that it will make a voluntary contribution to the United States Treasury in the amount of $15,000. The payment will be made within 30 days after the Effective Date of the Adopting Order. Alaska DigiTel shall retain the right to challenge Commission interpretation of the Consent Decree or any terms contained herein. If either Party (or the United States on behalf of the Commission) brings a judicial action to enforce the terms of the Adopting Order, neither Alaska DigiTel nor the Commission shall contest the validity of the Consent Decree or the Adopting Order, and Alaska DigiTel shall waive any statutory right to a trial de novo. Alaska DigiTel hereby agrees to waive any claims it may otherwise have under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 5 U.S.C. § 504 and 47 C.F.R. § 1.1501 et seq., relating to the matters addressed in this Consent Decree.

11. Severability. The Parties agree that if any of the provisions of the Adopting Order or the Consent Decree shall be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not invalidate or render unenforceable the entire Adopting Order or Consent Decree, but rather the entire Adopting Order or Consent Decree shall be construed as if not containing the particular invalid or unenforceable provision or provisions, and the rights and obligations of the Parties shall be construed and enforced accordingly. In the event that this Consent Decree in its entirety is rendered invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, it shall become null and void and may not be used in any manner in any legal proceeding.

12. Subsequent Rule or Order. The Parties agree that if any provision of the Consent Decree conflicts with any subsequent rule or Order adopted by the Commission (except an Order specifically intended to revise the terms of this Consent Decree to which Alaska DigiTel does not expressly consent) that provision will be superseded by such Commission rule or Order.

not constitute either an adjudication on the merits or a factual or legal finding or determination regarding any compliance or noncompliance with the requirements of the Act or the Commission's Rules and Orders.

15. Modifications. This Consent Decree cannot be modified without the advance written consent of both Parties.

16. Paragraph Headings. The headings of the Paragraphs in this Consent Decree are inserted for convenience only and are not intended to affect the meaning or interpretation of this Consent Decree.

17. Authorized Representative. Each party represents and warrants to the other that it has full power and authority to enter into this Consent Decree.

18. Counterparts. This Consent Decree may be signed in any number of counterparts (including by facsimile), each of which, when executed and delivered, shall be an original, and all of which counterparts together shall constitute one and the same fully executed instrument.
